>Hey, Friends!

>STICK IT was just released on DVD today (hooray!), and we need a lot of >help to nab the top spot for newly released movies. We are up against >GIANT movies, TV series and animated titles that are racking up pre-orders >and we really need your help. Since Amazon sales make a huge impact, if >you can't get to a store...here's the link!

>Please help us spread the word, forward this to friends and pick up your >copy this week! It would be amazing to claim the top spot for feature >films on DVD this week, but we really need all the help we can get. So if >you were in the movie, or have a friend in the movie or know someone or >know me...we hope you'll do us this favor.

>We love you all for supporting our little movie -- it's been an amazing >trip! And if any of you want me to sign your DVD, I will be happy to >oblige!!

>Many thanks!
